The musical score is written on ten staves in a single system. It begins with a treble clef and a key signature of one flat (B-flat). The melody is characterized by long, sweeping phrases connected by horizontal lines, indicating a continuous melodic line. The lyrics are placed below the notes, with some words split across lines. The score includes a time signature change from 4/4 to 2/4 in the third staff. The overall mood is solemn and reverent, typical of liturgical chant.
