

Exapostilarion 1

Let us go up with the dis - ci - ples to the moun - tain in Gal - i - lee, in faith to be - hold Christ as He says:
"All pow - er is giv - en un - to me in hea - ven and in earth."
Let us learn to teach all na - tions, bap - tis - ing them in the Name of the Fa - ther, and of the Son, and of the Ho - ly Spir - it, and be with those made par - tak - ers in the mys - ter - y,
as He prom - ised ev - en un - to the end of the world.

Glory...now and ever...

(this "Glory" is inserted in like manner between all the remaining Exapostilaria/Theotokia)

Glo - ry to the Fa - ther, and to the Son, and to the Ho - ly Spir - it, now and ev - er and un - to a - ges of a - ges. A - men.

Theotokion 2

An an - gel brought the Vir - gin the sal - u - ta - tion
be - fore Thy con - cep - tion, O Christ.
An an - gel al - so rolled a - way the stone from Thy tomb.
The one, in place of sor - row, brought to - kens of in - ef - fa - ble joy, and the oth - er, in place of death, pro -
-claimed and mag - ni - fied Thee, the Giv - er of life, pro - claim - ing the Res - ur - rec - tion to the wo - men,
and to those made par - tak - ers in the mys - te - ry.

Exapostilarion 3

Let no man doubt that Christ_ has ris - en, for He_ ap - peared to Ma - ry and then was seen by the two walk - ing in the coun - try. A - gain_ He ap - peared to the E - lev - en as_ they sat at_ meal and, hav - ing sent them to bap - tize, was re - ceived up in - to heav - en
 from whence_ He_ came, con - firm - ing their preach - ing with a mult - i - tude of signs.

Theotokion 3

O Thou Sun, that shone_ forth_ o - ver the tomb to - day, as a Bride - groom com - ing forth from the brid - al cham - ber
 Van - quish - er of hell and De - stroy - er of death:

Thou hast sent us light by the in - ter - ces - sion of her that bore Thee - light that has en - light - ened our hearts and souls, light that has di - rect - ed us all to walk in the paths of Thy com - mand - ments and the ways of peace.

Exapostilarion 4

Res - plen - dent with vir - tue, we see stand - ing
 by the life - bear - ing tomb a man in shin - ing gar - ments, while the myrrh - bear - ing wo - men bow down their fac - es to the earth.
 Let us learn of the Res - ur - rec - tion of Him who reigns ov - er heav - en, and let us hast - en with Pe - ter to find Life in the tomb

and, mar - vel - ling at that which has come_____ to pass,
let us re-main to___ gaze___ on Christ._____

Theotokion 4

Spread - ing a - broad the joy - ful tid - ings,
Thou, O Lord hast trans - formed the sor - row of our fore - fa - thers, bring - ing to the world in its stead the joy of Thy Res - ur - rec - tion.
There - fore, Giv - er of Life,___ through her who brought Thee forth, light_ has en - light - ened our hearts. Do Thou send down up - on us the light of Thy mer - - cies, that we may___ cry a - loud to Thee: Glo - ry to Thy Res - ur - rec - tion, O
God_____ and man who_ lov - est man - kind.

Exapostilarion 5

Christ, the Life and the Way, when He had ris - en from the dead, walked with Cle - o - pas and Luke on their way,
 and was made known to them at Em - ma - us in the break - ing of bread.
 Their hearts burned with - in them when He spoke to them on the way and in - ter - pre - ted to them the Scrip - tures and the things He had suf - fered. Let us cry a - loud with them:
 "He is ris - en, and has ap - peared to Pe - - - ter!"

Theotokion 5

I sing the prais - es of Thy mea - sure - less mer - cy, O my Mak - er, for Thou didst emp - ty Thy - self to suf - fer and to save the na - ture of mor - tal man that had grown e - - vil. Thou, be - ing God, was pleased to be born of God's pure Maid - en in my earth - ly con - di - - tion. Thou didst go down ev - en in - to hell, be - ing please by the in - ter - ces - sion of her that bore Thee to save me, O Word, Thou all - mer - ci - ful Mas - - ter.

Exapostilarion 6

Show - ing them that Thou art man in es - sence, O
 Sav - ior, aft - er Thy Res - ur - rec - tion from the tomb, Thou didst eat in the midst of Thy dis - ci - - ples,
 and didst teach them to preach the bap - ti - sm of re - pent - ance.

Thou straight - way as - cend - edst to the Fa - - ther and didst prom - ise to send the dis - ci - ples the Com - for - ter.
 O most di - vine God and Man, - glo - ry to Thy Res - ur - rec - tion!

Theotokion 6

The Cre - a - tor of all things and God of all has tak - en mor - tal flesh from thine un - de - filed blood, O all - ho - ly Vir - gin, and has re - newed my cor - rupt na - ture, leav - ing thee the same af - ter child - birth as thou wast be - fore.
 There - fore we all praise thee with faith, cry - ing a - loud
 Hail, Queen of the world!

Exapostilarion 7

When Ma - ry said that they had tak - en the Lord a - way, Sim - on Pe - ter and the o - ther dis - ci - ple of Christ whom He loved ran to the tomb, and they found the grave - clothes ly - ing a - lone there - in and the nap - kin that had been a - bout His head not with them but a - part.
 They there - fore kept si - lence un - til they saw Christ.

Theotokion 7

Things great and ex - ceed - ing strange_ hast Thou done for me,
 O my most_ mer - ci - ful Christ, for Thou_ wast
 in - ef - fa - bly born of a Vir - gin Maid - - en
 and didst ac - cept the Cross_ and suf - fer death.

Thou didst rise a - gain in glo - ry to set our na - ture free from death. Glo - ry to Thy glo - ry, O Christ;
 glo - ry to Thy pow - er!

Exapostilarion 8

See - ing two an - gels in - side the tomb, Ma - ry was struck with won - der and, not re - cog - niz - ing Christ, she, sup - pos - ing Him to be the gard' - ner asked Him:
 "Where, O Lord, hast Thou laid the bod - y of my Je - sus?"
 Then see - ing at His voice that it was the Sav - ior Him - self,
 she heard Him say: "Touch me not, tell the breth - ren
 that I go to My Fa - ther."

Theotokion 8

Thou, O Maid - en, didst in - ef - fab - ly bear
 One of the Trin - i - ty, two by na - ture,
 two in o - per - a - tion, One in Per - son.
 En - treat Him then for us who ven - er - ate Thee with faith, that we may ev - er be de - liv - ered from all the wiles of the en - e - my, for we all now take re - fuge in Thee,
 O La - dy and Mo - ther of God.

Exapostilarion 9

When Thou didst en - ter through closed doors, O Mas - ter, Thou didst fill the a - pos - tles with the Ho - ly Spir - it, gent - ly breath - ing on them; and Thou didst say to them that they would re - tain and re - mit sins;

 af - ter eight days Thou didst show Thom - as Thy side and Thy hands. With him we cry a - loud:
 "Thou art our Lord and our God!"

Theotokion 9

As thou didst be - hold on the third day,
 O Bride of God and most ho - ly Vir - gin,
 thine own Son ris - en from the tomb, thou didst set a - side all the af - flic - tion that thou en - dur - edst
 as a mo - ther on be - hold - ing Him suf - fer - ing.
 Thou wast filled with joy and, to - geth - er with His dis - ci - ples, didst laud Him in song. O Mo - ther of God, save those who thus con - fess thee.

Exapostilarion 10

The Sea of Ti - ber - i - as a - fore time drew the sons of Ze - be - dee, with Na - than - iel and Pe - ter, two o - ther dis - ci - ples and Thom - - as,
to go fish - - ing. Cast - ing their net on the right side of the ship at Christ's com - mand, they drew in a mult - i - tude of fish. Pe - ter, re - cog - niz - ing Him, cast him - self in - to the sea to go to Him.
This was the third time that He had ap - peared to them, and He showed them bread and fish up - on the coals.

Theotokion 10

O Vir - gin, pray to Him who rose from the tomb on the third day for the who praise thee and bless thee with love. For we have thee as a sav - ing re - fuge and a me - di - a - tor be - fore Him.
 We have in - deed be - come thy her - i - tage and thy ser - vants, O Mo - ther of God, and we all look to thy pro - tec - tion.

Exapostilarion 11

Af - ter the di - vine Res - ur - rec - tion the Lord,
 ask - ing Pe - ter three times: "Lov - est Thou me?",
 made him the chief shep - herd of the sheep in His fold.

See - ing him whom Je - sus loved fol - low - ing a - long be - hind_ Him, he asked his Mas - ter: "What shall___ this man do?"
 "If I will," He said, "that he tar - ry til I come___ a - gain, what is that to thee, Pe - ter my friend?"

Theotokion 11

O fear - some mys - te - ry! O_ glo - rious won - der!
 Death___ is, by death, ut - ter - ly des - troyed.
 Who then prais - es not Thy Res - ur - rec - tion, O Word?
 Who then ven - er - ates___ not the Mo - ther of God,
 Who bore_ Thee in pur - i - ty in the flesh? By her in - ter - ces - ions, de - liv - er us all from Ge - hen - - - na.
