

My dear friend,

I hope that today you are having a good day. It is important around this time of year to know that you are so loved, even across the ocean there is love for you. Even though we don't know each other, it doesn't matter. The only thing that matters is that God created us to love one another and with that, we are able to share love and hope from America to Kosovo. It's important for you, and all the other Serbs of Kosovo, to know that Serbs in America think of the Serbs in Kosovo all the time and we pray for your safety and well being. I cannot even begin to fully understand how hard it is for you from day to day but just know that everyday is a blessing. I know that some days are hard and horrible, even. But, God has a plan for everyone. He has a plan for me and a plan for you. We just have to trust in Him and in the end everything will be okay. I know it's hard sometimes to think this way, but if you believe it to be true, it will be.

XPHICTOC CE POUH!
